

LATAM LOGISTIC PROPERTIES (LLP) announces retirement of one the board directors from LLP

Bogota, Colombia (November 12th, 2021). LLP, Latam Logistic Properties, leading developer, owner, and operator of modern sustainable logistic real estate in the Andean and Central American regions, announces retirement of one of the board directors of LLP. The board of directors met last November 11th and approved Justin Brown resignation for personal reasons.

LLP will maintain its commitment with highest corporate government and sustainability standards which are core in the organizational culture.

ABOUT LATAM LOGISTIC PROPERTIES

LatAm Logistic Properties is a leading developer, owner, and operator of modern sustainable logistic real estate in high-growth and high barrier to entry markets in the Andean and Central American regions. The Company's customers are multinational and regional companies dedicated to third party logistics, business-to-business distribution, retail distribution and e-commerce fulfillment centers. The solid relationships established with our clients, and its extensive knowledge of the markets in which it operates, is the foundation that will allow future growth through the development and acquisition of high-quality properties strategically located in key markets. As of September 30, 2021, LatAm Logistic Properties had a portfolio of properties in operation and under development of twenty-seven properties dedicated to logistics in Colombia, Peru and Costa Rica, accumulating a net profitable area of 410,935 square meters. The Company has a growth capacity of up to 609,087 square meters of gross profitable area through the development of both its own and controlled land banks through joint venture business models with strategic partners.

CONTACT INVESTOR RELATIONS

Julian Naranjo Porras
Investor Relations Officer

Av. Calle 82 #9-65 Oficina 203
Edificio Savile
Bogota D.C., Colombia
julian@latamlp.com
www.latamlogisticproperties.com